

Are You a Visionary Parent?

Being a parent is an incredibly demanding calling and responsibility. Sometimes it feels like we have all we can do just get our kids (and ourselves) through each day in one piece. God has a greater plan for your family than just “getting through” each day. He has a grand vision for your home, and for your children. Would you like to know what it is?

Family Pastor Rob Rienow will present his Visionary Parenting workshop Friday, March 30, 6:30-9:00 pm, and Saturday, March 8, 9:00-12:30 pm. You will be encouraged, motivated, and equipped to help your children grow in their character, and to become the men and women God created them to be. Come and discover God’s grand vision for your family! The workshop is for parents and grandparents with children or grandchildren from ages 0-18.

Here is what past attendees have said about Visionary Parenting:

“[The workshop] was very thought-provoking and the applications were ‘rubber meets the road.’”

“We were humbled, yet inspired, by the awesome responsibility given to us by God,”

“We found out that the problems in our home are not unique. We received practical steps to help our family become a more peaceful place.”

Mark and Anne Litavsky, currently the parents of three, have attended the workshop twice.

“You could go 10 times and it wouldn’t be enough,” Mark said. “We have come away with something new each time. Trying to do it all at once will cause you to do nothing at all. Visionary Parenting helped us discover the key to any significant change is to prepare a purpose for your family, then take initiative in one or two areas at a time.”

Since attending the workshop, the Litavsky’s have found that their hearts have changed in regards to how they interact with each other, and that they now know why God brought them together.

As the Litavsky’s and many others have seen in past years, this will be a weekend to Inspire and launch your family toward the greatest command of all, “Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up” (Deut. 6:5-7).
